MONTHLY NEWSLETTER 2025

*Faith's mission is to openly share
the saving grace of Jesus' love*

Faith Opens Doors

"Come, Lord Jesus, be our guest. Let these gifts to us be blessed."

~ Traditional Table Prayer

From the Pastor's Desk

Did you grow up saying this table prayer or some other similar prayer before a meal? This is the unspoken "liturgy" of visiting my parents' house still today: we sit down, we're all quiet, then we all launch into this prayer aloud together before serving and eating the food. If you've ever visited my parents' house for a meal, you know that this is what you do. I am sure that my parents pray this prayer together even when no one else is there. At our house, we have expanded our mealtime prayer to include silent prayer (which often becomes a competition between our two kids for who can be quiet the longest), a volunteer praying from their heart, and a variety of camp prayers like the Superman and Jaws prayers (if you know, you know).

Taking time to give thanks to God before a meal is a simple, easy way to include prayer and gratitude in our day. The month of November includes so many different aspects of who God is in our worship life – we begin with All Saints Sunday, touch on some end-times/second coming of Jesus readings, celebrate Christ the King Sunday, and end with the First Sunday of Advent. Thanksgiving is of course part of our worship this month also!

I'm trying to tie all of this together with the common theme of "Come, Lord Jesus" for our worship this month. We are preparing for Jesus to come again. In sharing our "God sightings," in our prayers and worship and service, we expect Jesus to show up among us even as we are waiting for his second coming. We look around at the state of our world, and we long for Christ to come in his fullness. Then, even amongst the suffering and sickness of the world, Thanksgiving reminds us to look around and thank God for so many gifts and blessings in the mess of life. It's a simple prayer that many of us know by heart – two sentences. (cont. page 5)

Giving Thanks

Heavenly Father,

On Thanksgiving Day we bow our hearts to you and pray.

We give you thanks for all you've done, especially for the gift of Jesus, your son.

For beauty in nature, your glory we see, for joy and health, friends and family.

For daily provision, your mercy and care; these are just some of the blessings you graciously share.

So today we offer this response of praise, with a promise to follow you as stewards all of our days.

Amen!

Pastor's Corner Continued:

Yet it grounds us for our daily life as Christians: welcoming Christ's presence among us, looking for signs of Jesus' coming again, encouraging one another's giftedness and giving thanks to God for our blessings in the meantime. So if you're looking for a table blessing for your family dinner this Thanksgiving, or wanting to bring back a simple meal prayer for your family, why not try it? Amen!

— Pastor Rebecca

Sunday School

Faith's young people have weekly opportunities to be immersed in God's word and to connect with one another and their teachers. We are so happy to see growth in our nursery program, including lesson materials designed by Darlene Gaffney. Many thanks to Darlene, as well as Priscilla Ho, Jojo Chen, Abigail and Gabby Ho, Amelia and Patrick Lin, and Izzy Raba for leading our youngest learners.

Our school-age group continues to explore stories of the Old Testament this fall, with recent stories including The Ten Commandments, Joshua, Ruth &

Naomi, and Samuel. As we move into the month of November, the group will explore the legacy of David, as well as prepare for our annual Christmas pageant, where the children tell us the story of Jesus' birth. Scheduled for December 21, you don't want to miss it!

This past month, we collaborated with Faith Nursery School for the annual Trunk or Treat, which was a great success. Thank you to all who came out, decorated trunks, provided sweet treats, and assisted with the craft table. Our next Faith Family Event is our annual Talent Show on Friday, November 7 at 7pm in the church. We hope to see you there!

We are always looking for volunteers to assist with our education programming. Please see Jess Raba if you'd like to get involved!

Nursery School

Welcome, November!

We had such a spook-tacular October here at Faith Nursery School! The children had a wonderful time celebrating the season with lots of Halloween fun, creativity, and laughter. It was such a joy to see their excitement and imagination shine all month long! As we move into November, we're looking forward to a month full of learning, gratitude, and thankfulness. We have some exciting events coming up, including Picture Day, a Fire Truck Visit from our local firefighters who will teach us the importance of fire safety, and the Blessing of Food Pantry Items during Chapel. Before we head off for Thanksgiving Break, we'll also be having a special Thanksgiving Brunch Celebration of our own — filled with yummy food, friendship, and togetherness! We can't wait to see what fun and meaningful moments the month of November will bring here at Faith Nursery!

~ Olivia Weinert, Interim Director
